The Echo Lake Collaborative Conferences are held each Spring at Bucks County Community College in Newtown, Pennsylvania. The purpose of the conference is to bring together area artists, students, and internationally recognized artists in a setting that encourages creativity and collaboration. For three days the attendees work in wood, metal, glass, and other mediums to produce a collection of art pieces. At the conclusion a banquet is held and all of the art is sold at auction to fund future conferences, make grants to the Bucks County Community College and the Center for Art in Wood, and provide awards for Bucks County Community College students.

This year's award winners are:
Echo Lake Awards of Excellence: Suren Airapetian, Deja Diaz, Jamilya Kasymalieva, Julia Mammone, Raymond Mansfield, Kazi Morshed, and Kristen Reiter
Kathleen Sticker Award of Excellence: Peter Buruschkin
2018 Echo Lake Steering Committee: Matt Overton, John Mathews, Joe Seltzer, Mark Sfirri, Ward Stevens, and Bil Sticker
